A. Guyer, the young man who was crushed by a car in the Santa Fe yards on Thursday morning stands a chance of getting well. He stood his ride to the county hospital and was feeling much better yesterday morning. He ate heartily of breakfast. Though it was the opinion of the physician that he would die, that was never for a moment shared by Guyer himself.NEARBY DELEGATIONS—The Florence, Wickenburg and other near-by convention delegations arrived here last night with chips on their shoulders which they will dare any jointure enthusiasts to knock off their shoulders. All will be welcome to these services.BEAR HUNTERS RETURN—M. C. Fisk, Jeff Adams and Frank Ascher returned last night from a seven weeks outing trip in the Four Peaks country. It was an outing for Mr. Fisk at least, though the others were looking after their cattle interests and together with Mr. Fisk they escorted a fine bunch of beef cattle back to the valley. Mr. Fisk says they had a fine time. The Four Peaks country is the roughest in the world and there isn't room enough to lay down without getting a curve in one's back. The game is plentiful, springs all running and everything a camper needs is at hand. There is also plenty of game. Mr. Fisk says they killed a good many bears of course, but he didn't have a secretary along to count them. Anyhow he wouldn't try to exceed the president's record for nobody would believe him even if he told the truth about it.

MINOR OFFENDERS—V. Rubio was before Justice Johnstone yesterday for a disturbance of the peace. He is a Yaqui, small of size and exceedingly dark of color. He was sent to jail for seven days. A Montoya another disturber, got a similar sentence. Andrew Azules, a more moderate law breaker was let off with five days. But the worst of all was Andy Garcia, who was too drunk to try. His sins were cumulative. He had been arrested the night before by Constable Proops. At that time he was sober enough to take care of himself and the officer sent him home with instructions to report in court. Going home he started another row with a neighbor and when he got through his face was a sight to behold. But that kept him quiet for the rest of the night. Yesterday morning he started to court, and on the way he managed to get into another fight and the wounds of the night before were reopened and added to. He will have a hearing today.DEATH OF MRS. GOLDWATER—Barry Goldwater received a telegram yesterday from his brother, Morris, who is in San Francisco, announcing the death of their mother, Mrs. Sarah Goldwater, in San Francisco at 5:30 last evening. Word was received a few days ago that she was very ill of pneumonia and Morris Goldwater of Prescott left at once for her bedside. Barry will leave on this morning's Santa Fe for San Francisco. Mrs. Goldwater has lived in San Francisco for a great many years, that having been the family home during the early days when her late husband, M. Goldwater, was engaged in merchandising in Arizona. She was therefore never a resident of Arizona, though well known by a great number of Arizona people. She was over eighty years old and is survived by three daughters and three sons, the latter being well known here. Morris, the oldest is mayor of Prescott. Barry a leading Phoenix merchant and Henry a San Francisco merchant though formerly interested with his brothers in the Phoenix and Prescott stores.
